J. RIBS TO MARRY

Noted Sociologist to Marry His Stenographer.

A FRIEND OF ROOSEVELT

Termed by the President as "New York's Most Useful Citizen"—Former Wife Was an Inspiration For Many of His Writings.

NEW YORK, June 27.—According to a published announcement today, J. A. Riis sociologist and author, whom President Roosevelt has called New York's most useful citizen, is to be married in August to Miss Mary Phillips, his stenographer and secretary.

Mr. Riis' first wife who was his inspiration and the theme of many paragraphs in his writings, died two years ago. Of her he wrote in "The Making of an American," published in 1903, this touching tribute: "I dreamed a beautiful dream in my youth and I awoke and found it true. My silver bride they call her just now (1903). The frost is upon my head; her's winter has not touched with its softest breath. Her footfall the lightest, her laugh the merriest in the house. The boys are all in love with their mother the girls tyrannize and worship her together. The cadet corps elect her an honorary member, for no stouter champion of the flag is in the land."

"Sometimes, when she sings with the children I sit and listen, and with her voice there comes to me as an echo of the long past, the words in her letter that blessed first letter in which she wrote down the text of all my after life: 'We will strive together for all that is noble and good.' So she saw her duty as a true American, and aye, she has kept the pledge."

Miss Phillips, who is 25 years of age, is the daughter of Mrs. H. Phillips, formerly of St. Louis, but now of Boston.

SCOTLAND YARD MEN HERE.

NEW YORK, June 27.—Three Scotland Yard detectives who have just arrived from London are the subject of some conjecture in regard to their business here. The officers naturally decline to talk of their errand but a rumor in regard to their mission which has gained some credence is that they are seeking the stolen Asot cup.
